ELITE SOFTWARE helps villagers in East Africa

Good Hope Africa, Inc. was the beneficiary of a $5,000 donation from Elite Software. These funds will be used to provide the villagers in the African country of Tanzania much needed healthcare and health information.

"We are sponsoring a health fair in the village of Imbaseni" said Elite Software Vice President Elayna Rexrode. The health fair will be held at the village library and will include blood pressure screenings, first aid demonstrations, information about malaria and the distribution of bed nets.

There will also be a film about HIV prevention — a vital presentation since Africa experiences one of the highest global mortality rates due to HIV/AIDS.

"Education is a huge part of what we do at Elite Software, so we're pleased to facilitate this kind of program" said Elayna. The library is mostly funded through private donations from the international community, and provides educational materials and programs to local village residents. In a country where the average annual income is around $200, free books, programs and healthcare are much needed.

"The library is a place where people come to read and learn skills to help them build a better life," said Elayna. One local disabled woman learned to knit at the library. She now makes hats that she sells in the local market and has earned enough to buy a wheelchair. Part of the Elite Software donation will also fund operating costs for the library.

Good Hope Africa is a non-profit organization providing financial, educational and other support to villagers in rural Africa. For more information visit www.goodhopeafrica.org.

ARE YOU BACKING UP?

Backing up your program on a daily basis protects your valuable information. Neglecting to do so could be debilitating to your company's operations if you should ever suffer any hard drive failures and need to reinstall the software. Here are some tips for easier back ups.

- Keep your backup process quick and easy—use a USB flash drive.
- Flash drives plug into any available USB port on your computer.
- Make sure the flash drive does not have "U3" technology enabled.
- Look for a flash drive with storage capacity of at least 512MB, which is sufficient for most customers.

- Double check the "System Requirements" of the USB flash drive you purchase to make sure it is compatible with your version of Windows®. Windows® 98 (First Edition) is not compatible with any flash drives currently available. Windows® 98 Second Edition can be used only with certain flash drives.
- Create folders on your flash drive for every day of the week and then move the backup files to the appropriate folder each day.
- Use another USB flash drive for additional protection of your data. Backup to this flash drive once a week.
- If you run the program on a network, you can backup from any computer.
- Keep your USB flash drive in a safe and secure location. Most of our customers remove the flash drive from their premises every day.
- Remember to backup your Elite Salon & Spa Payroll™ program after running each payroll. Use a separate flash drive for this as well.
